Cincinnati World Cinema presents two programs of Oscar-nominated short films

 By Richard O Jones | Thursday, March 26, 2009, 09:15 PM

Cincinnati World Cinema presents its 8th Annual Exhibition of the Oscar-Nominated Short Films, 4 p.m. (program A) and 7:30 p.m. (program B) Sunday; 7:30 p.m. Tuesday (program A); 7:30 p.m. Wednesday (program B); the Redmoor in Mt. Lookout Square, 3187 Linwood Ave., Cincinnati. $10 single seating; $16 combo ticket. (513) 871-6789.

"This is the only opportunity for area film buffs to see these thought-provoking and visually beautiful short films at one time, in one place," said Tim Swallow, director of Cincinnati World Cinema.

Comedy, romance, reflection and suspense are the principal themes in this year's cream-of-the-crop films from Denmark, France, Germany, Ireland, Japan, Russia, Switzerland, the United Kingdom and the United States.

The films are divided into two separate 93-minute programs, "A" and "B", each with five Oscar-nominated films, including an Oscar winner; plus each has two or more bonus shorts of comparable caliber.

"As a treat, we're including some unusual, hilarious and outrageous commercials from around the world," Swallow said.
